FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Acquisition of Shares of United Precision Technologies, Co., Ltd.

Integral Corporation and its affiliated funds are pleased to announce that they have acquired shares of United Precision Technologies, Co., Ltd. ("UPT") from existing shareholders.

UPT's corporate vision is "becoming the top global niche micro and precision technology solutions company." Based on this vision and the world-class technology, UPT has established a global niche and top position in the VCM business, which supplies high-precision plate springs used in smartphone cameras and other devices. The company has also built strong relationships of trust with major blue-chip players in Japan and overseas in various niche areas, such as semiconductor manufacturing and inspection equipment components and factory production line jigs, based on the strengths honed in the VCM business.

We will maintain this position and achieve further growth by strengthening and expanding its customer base and developing business areas with high growth potential.

As for the management structure, the current management team will continue to lead the overall management, aiming to achieve UPT's corporate philosophy of "Contribute to the well-being of people around the world and realization of an affluent society through high value-added technology."

Integral will support UPT in strengthening its business operations and realizing growth and business development by providing its accumulated management know-how, "i-Engine" functions, and human network.

About Integral

Japanese private equity company investing in listed and unlisted companies in Japan. "Integral" stands for "integral calculus – accumulation over time," meaning that the company will strive to establish a relationship of highest trust with the management of invested companies, and will aim to accumulate the highest wisdom over time. Integral makes equity investments from a long-range perspective through its unique "hybrid investment" approach, utilizing both principal and fund money for investment. Subsequent to investment, the company will provide optimal support in terms of management and finance through the "i-Engine" corporate value enhancement team, and will collaborate with the invested company sharing the same objectives and time horizon and seeing eye-to-eye with its management. Integral aspires to be a trusted investment fund, contributing to society through the success of invested companies.
